

MAXIENT

Maxient helps with various processes related to student well-being and student conduct. It serves as an integral component in overall early alert efforts, helping to identify students in distress and coordinate the efforts of various departments to provide follow-up. Maxient has the capacity to securely email and text student conduct and related communications to parties involved in a report.

When reporting incidents through any of the forms below, please note:

- Your confidentiality and trust are very important to us. We will make every effort to respect your privacy. Please be aware, however, in certain circumstances involving safety or criminal action, we may not be able to guarantee complete anonymity. Regardless of the situations, matters are handled discretely and in conformity with University privacy policies, and information about individuals or situations will only be shared with individuals with a legitimate need to know. Cal Maritime has strong anti-retaliation policies that protect individuals who report incidents or cooperate in an investigation
- Anyone reporting an incident via these forms should provide either a phone number and/or an e-mail address so that we may contact you if there is a need for clarification or if additional questions or concerns arise
- Students may also contact on-call campus medical and psychological professionals 24-hours a day by calling 707-654-1170 (Student Health)
