Procedures:

Removal of previous term(s) work from degree consideration under the above circumstances is subject to the following provisions:

1. The student has requested the action formally and has presented evidence that the work completed in the terms(s) under consideration is (are) substandard and not representative of present scholastic ability and level of performance; and
2. At least five calendar years must have elapsed since the course work was attempted; and
3. Since the most recent work to be disregarded was completed, the student has subsequently completed at the campus 15 semester units or 22 quarter units with at least a 3.0 GPA, 30 semester units or 45 quarter units with at least a 2.5 GPA, or 45 semester units or 67 quarter units with at least a 2.0 GPA; and
4. The student must provide evidence that past performance was due to extenuating circumstances and that additional enrollment would be necessary to qualify for a degree if the request were not approved; and
5. When such action is taken, the student's permanent academic record shall be annotated so that it is readily evident to all users of the record, that no work taken during the disregarded term(s) even if satisfactory, may apply toward baccalaureate requirements. However, all work must remain legible on the record ensuring a true and complete academic history.
